

PROF. EPIMACO V. DENSING III. CPA, MBA

Assistant Secretary, DILG

Professor Epimaco V. Densing III as a public servant is widely known as an activist, pro-poor, and an environmentalist. He is a licensed Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and a Certified Management Accountant. He finished his Masters in Business Administration (MBA) with a gold medal for academic distinction at the Ateneo Graduate School of Business under the Regis University Executive MBA Program, a University in the USA where he likewise became a Professor.

He is a recipient of successive recognitions for his service to the country and some of these are;

- Most Outstanding Student Leadership Medal;
- One of De La Salle University's Ten Outstanding Young Men;
- Most Outstanding Student Legislator;
- International Champion Debater on Human Rights; and recently
- Ten Outstanding Movers of the Philippines for 2017; and
- Aliw Broadcasting Company's DWIZ882 Public Service Award.

As the DILG Assistant Secretary for Plans and Programs, ASec. Densing III supervises the;

- Planning Service;
- Information System and Technology Management Service;
- and acts as the supervising authority over the following programs and projects;
  - Assistance to Municipalities Project Management Office;
  - the Drug Abuse Treatment and Rehabilitation Center Inter-Agency Task Force Project Management Office;
  - Resettlement Governance Project Management Office
  - Conditional Matching Grant to Provinces (CMGP) KALSADA;
  - SALINTUBIG Project Management Office;
  - AKSYON (Adhikain Kontra KorapSYON); and
  - the disaster resilience efforts.

Ladies and Gentlemen we are presenting to you, PROFESOR EPIMACO V. DENSING III, the Assistant Secretary for Plans and Programs of the Department of the Interior and Local Government.

